St. James's, October 15.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſs of Durham.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the timely Diſcovery of ſome late Wicked and Treaſonable Deſigns concerted in Favour of the Pretender.

We think our ſelves more particularly affected by the Conſequences of ſuch Attempts, and are therefore bound in Intereſt, as well as Duty to your Majeſty, to abhor them; we are perſwaded that the Security of our Eſtabliſhed Church, under God, depends upon the Safety of your Perſon, the Preſervation of your Government, and the Continuance of the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Line, and that all Changes in our Eſtabliſhment muſt be prejudicial to our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

It hath been, ever ſince the Reformation, the diſtinguiſhing Mark of the true Members of our Communion, to profeſs and teach Loyalty to their Sovereign; in purſuance of which we ſhall make it our Endeavour to poſſeſs our ſeveral Flocks with the ſame Sentiments, and to diſcourage all groundleſs Diſcontents againſt your Government.

That your Majeſty's ſteddy Cares and faithful Endeavours for the Proteſtant Intereſt Abroad, and our Eſtabliſhment at Home, may meet with all juſt Returns of Affection and Reſpect from your loving Subjects, and that you may long Reign over a happy and free People, are our Wiſhes and Prayers.

An humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governour, the Judge-Delegate, the Jurats, the Clergy, the King's Procurator, and the Conſtables, being the Eſtates of His Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, Part of His ancient Dutchy of Normandy, aſſembled the 19th of September 1722, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lieutenant-General Harvey, Governour of that Iſland, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Grand Jury, and other Freeholders aſſembled at the Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held for the County of Eſſex the 2d Day of October, in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Comyns, Eſq; Serjeant at Law, Chairman at the ſaid Quarter-Seſſions, and Robert Honywood, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Abſence of the Earl of Thomond Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Rocheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Jennings one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Cadiz, Sept. 29, N. S. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Falmouth is arrived here from Gibraltar, on her Voyage Home.

Lisbon, Oct. 4, N. S. The three Maltese Men of War which came ſome Days ago into this River, are, one of 64 Guns, another of 56, and the third of 50; they are compleatly manned, with French and Italians; their Commodore the Bailly of Langon a French Knight of Malta, with 50 other Knights of that Order, have been admitted to an Audience of the King of Portugal, and have received from his Majeſty ſeveral Marks of Favour and Diſtinction.

Stockholm, Sept. 19. On the 13th Inſtant the King and Queen of Sweden arrived at Orebroe, and on the 15th their Majeſties came to the Palace of Kongſore. The King is ſince gone towards Upſal, in order to review his Life-Guards and ſome other Regiments; and in the mean time the Queen has choſen to reſide at the Palace of Grypſholm, about ſeven Swediſh Miles from this Place. The Weather has of late been fair, and warmer than it uſually is at this Seaſon, ſo that the Corn is generally got in in a pretty good Condition, inſomuch that inſtead of a Dearth which was once greatly apprehended, there is now rather Plenty of Grain in moſt Provinces of this Kingdom.

Paris, Oct. 21, N. S. On the 17th Inſtant the moſt Chriſtian King and his Court ſet out from hence for Rheims: In the Coach with him were the Duke of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, the Count of Clermont, the Prince of Conty, and the Duke of Charoſt. The Infanta Queen is to reſide at Verſailles till his Majeſty's Return. Madame the Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans, who is at Rheims, is fallen ſick. The Duke of Orleans is to entertain the King and all his Retinue at Villers Coteretz, both going to and coming from Rheims: Above 4000 Beds are ſent to that Houſe and thoſe in the Neighbourhood, for lodging the Perſons who accompany and attend his Majeſty. The principal Entertainment there is to be in the King's Return. The Duke of Bourbon deſigns to give the like Entertainment to the King and his Attendants at Chantilly, and his Preparations for it are very great. Some Information has been
